Mumbai (Maharashtra) [India], September 15: The 12th Global Investment Immigration Summit held at the Sofitel, BKC Mumbai, witnessed a remarkable surge in attendees, signaling a growing interest among Indians in pursuing opportunities abroad. Organized by BLS Global with Acquest Advisors as Knowledge Partner and NDTV as the media partner, the event brought together immigration experts from around the world, including the US, UK, Spain, Portugal, Greece, and more, who flew down to India to participate in the event. It was attended by over 150 High Net Worth Individuals (HNIs) and industry professionals.

Sam Hussain, Director of BLS Global, extended a warm welcome to the distinguished guests, speakers, and partners, expressing gratitude for their support in making the event a resounding success.

The summit commenced with an inauguration by Chandrakant Salunkhe, President of the SME Chamber of India, who urged Indian entrepreneurs to explore global opportunities and expand their businesses internationally.

Paresh Karia, CEO of Acquest Advisors, delivered an enlightening presentation highlighting the impact of recent global events, notably the Covid-19 pandemic and the conflict in Europe, on the increased interest in Residency and Citizenship by investment options such as the Portugal Golden Visa, Greece Golden Visa, and Spain Golden Visa among individuals from developed countries like the US and UK.

The event's highlight was a power-packed EB-5 session moderated by Ambika Singh, a Senior Journalist with NDTV's special projects. The panelists, comprising leading professionals from the US and India, engaged in discussions covering both the legal and financial aspects of the EB-5 program while also addressing questions from the engaged audience.

The summit continued with presentations on investment opportunities in Europe, specifically focusing on Portugal, Greece, and Spain. The post-lunch session delved into the technicalities of remitting funds overseas under the Liberalised Remittance Scheme and the recent increase in Tax Collected at Source on such remittances. Renowned bankers, chartered accountants, and immigration experts provided valuable insights and easily digestible information for the attendees.

The event concluded with a spirited discussion on the "Twenty Years of Residency and Citizenship Industry in India," featuring prominent Indian immigration experts, including Paresh Karia, CEO of Acquest Advisors, Prashant Ajmera, Chairman of Ajmera Law Group, and Sam Hussain, Director of BLS Global. They shed light on the evolution of the investment immigration industry in India over the last two decades and the promising prospects for the future.

Acquest Advisors was the knowledge partner for the event and played a key role in providing the content as well as shaping the flow of the event and the presentations and panel discussions.
