Charting Global Immigration Pathways: Insights from the 14th Global Investment Immigration Summit

Paresh Karia, CEO Acquest Advisors delivering the inaugural presentation on "Global Residency and Citizenship Trends and outlook for 2024"

New Delhi [India], February 16: The 14th Global Investment Immigration Summit at the Shangri-la Hotel in New Delhi on February 10, 2024 marked a significant milestone in India's quest for international opportunities. The event witnessed a remarkable surge in attendees, indicative of the growing interest among Indian investors and High Net Worth Individuals (HNIs) in exploring avenues abroad. With a keen focus on various immigration programs such as the EB-5 Visa, Portugal Golden Visa, UK Business Immigration, and Europe Golden Visa, the summit served as a comprehensive platform for industry professionals and aspiring immigrants alike.

Organized by BLS Global and Acquest Advisors (Knowledge Partner) with NDTV as the media partner, the summit brought together a diverse array of immigration experts from around the world. Representatives from countries like the US, UK, Portugal, Greece, and more converged in New Delhi to share insights and expertise with over 150 HNIs and industry professionals in attendance.

The opening ceremony of the summit was graced by Sam Hussain, Director of BLS Global, and Paresh Karia, CEO Acquest Advisors who extended a warm welcome to all the distinguished guests, speakers, and partners. Shri Raj Kumar Sharma, Founder, President, and CEO of the Indo Latin American Chamber of Commerce, delivered the inaugural address, shedding light on the myriad opportunities available to Indian business owners and HNIs on the global stage. Sharma's emphasis on the importance of seeking professional guidance in navigating the complex immigration landscape struck a chord with the audience, laying the foundation for the insightful discussions that followed.

One of the key highlights of the summit was the presentation by Paresh Karia, CEO of Acquest Advisors. With years of experience in banking, investment advisory, real estate, and immigration, Karia brought a wealth of knowledge to the table. His presentation provided a comprehensive overview of the latest immigration trends, focusing on the growing interest among Indian HNIs in residency and citizenship by investment options such as the US EB-5 Visa, Portugal Golden Visa, and Greece Golden Visa. Karia's insights resonated with the audience, sparking discussions and inquiries into the various opportunities available abroad.

A power-packed session on the , moderated by Ambika Singh, a Senior Journalist with NDTV, captured the attention of attendees. Leading professionals from the US and India engaged in insightful discussions, dissecting the legal and financial intricacies of the EB-5 program and addressing queries from the audience. The session provided valuable insights into the highly popular US Green Card by Investment program, its requirements, benefits, and potential pitfalls, empowering attendees to make informed decisions about their immigration goals.

The summit also featured presentations highlighting investment opportunities in Europe, with a particular focus on countries like Portugal and Greece. Post-lunch sessions delved into the technical aspects of remitting funds overseas under schemes like the Liberalised Remittance Scheme, as well as recent regulatory changes affecting such remittances. The session, led by Paresh Karia, featured renowned bankers, chartered accountants, and immigration experts who imparted valuable insights and practical guidance on navigating the intricate terrain of international finance and immigration effectively.

A panel discussion on the recent changes in UK Immigration programs rounded off the event, providing attendees with valuable insights into the opportunities available to entrepreneurs and businesses seeking immigration to the UK.
